ABOUT THE ARTISTS

Grant Penny

Grant Penny was born in Sanford, North Carolina, a small town 35 miles southwest of Raleigh. His mother, Marsha Grant, was an artist, art teacher, and graphic designer. Her paintings on the walls, a potter's wheel on the back porch, visiting museums and galleries – Art was prevalent during his formative years, and continues to be a force in his everyday life.

Jessie and Katey

Jessie Unterhalter and Katey Truhn are a Baltimore based artist duo striving to transform public spaces into colorful and vibrant experiences. They have been collaborating on large-scale murals, fine art and sculpture since 2012. Their mission grows from a simple desire to bring playfulness to public spaces and enhance people's lives through art. They believe that the aesthetics of ones environments can influence their emotions and state of mind.

Jon Leonardo

Hoping to inspire people to smile more, West coast based artist Jon Leonardo specializes in creating street murals and public art in beautifully designed spaces— like restaurants, hotels and cafés.

Kelsey Montague

Kelsey's murals specifically invite people into a piece and then invite people to share their experience online. Kelsey believes that the human experience should have a hand in creating the art itself. After studying art in Florence, and graduating from Richmond University in London with a degree in Art, Design & Media, Kelsey spent 4 years in NYC – embracing and battling the Big Apple while developing her pen & ink style.

Lisa Gaither

Lisa Gaither is a commissioned-based artist in Raleigh, North Carolina. She is self-taught and has been creating her entire life. Lisa started her career in graphic design and printing, and in 1996 she decided to become a full-time, self-employed artist. Lisa has created murals and installations all over the East Coast.

Mia Yoon

Mia Yoon was driven to be an artist from an early age, attending the well-regarded Art Students League of New York as a teenager, then Pratt Institute to continue her classical training as an artist. After viewing an Antoni Tapies exhibit at the Guggenheim, she dedicated herself and her time to learning everything she could about abstract art and how to create it.

Raquel Assanoua

Raquel Assanoua is a self-taught Multi-Media Artist now based in Raleigh, NC but originally from Miami, Florida. She has been a creative her entire life and loved sketching portraits mostly of women and writing poetry since a young girl. She decided to start sharing and selling her art since the summer of 2017 and is looking forward to setting her mark as an artist in Raleigh and beyond.

Sarah Tate

Sarah Tate is an illustrator, designer, and muralist based in Nashville, Tennessee. When she's not making eye-catching designs, you can usually find her dancing in her kitchen or climbing mountains somewhere out West. She is inspired and energized by her time spent outside.

Shannon Snow

Shannon Snow makes colorful art for the colorful-at-heart. Since starting her design career, she's been nurturing her love for highly illustrative surface design, maximalist color, and bold typography. Southern born and raised, she lives in the beautiful city of Savannah, GA with her little family.

Scott Nurkin

Scott Nurkin attended the Lorenzo di Medici School of Art in Florence, Italy and graduated with a BFA degree in painting and drawing from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. After college, Scott began a 3-year apprenticeship with master-muralist Michael Brown at Brown Fine Art Studios in Carrboro, NC.

Thomas Sayre

Thomas Sayre has designed and built public art projects all over the world and has been part of the design team for civic, educational, and museum buildings. He, along with architect Steve Schuster, is a founding principal of the multi-disciplinary design firm, Clearscapes, and has collaborated to produce lighting, furniture, terrazzo floors, and specialty surfaces.
